

Risk, Response, and Resolution: Handling Imminent Jeopardy Citation in Long-Term Care

Join us for an in-depth session designed to help long-term care professionals navigate the complexities of Imminent Jeopardy Citations. In this training, we'll explore the critical aspects of these citations, from statutory and regulatory requirements to the surveyor determination process and appeals. You'll gain a thorough understanding of:

- What the statutes and regulations say about Imminent Jeopardy Citations.
- How surveyors make determinations and how these can change based on Quality, Safety & Oversight (QSO) guidance.
- The importance of rapid removal of the problem and effectively addressing the situation at hand.
- The different types of penalties associated with these citations.
- The appeals process: what it entails and the facility's ability to overturn citations.
- Upcoming CMS changes and what they mean for facilities.

Equip yourself with the knowledge and strategies you need to handle these challenging situations and protect your facility's standing. This session is essential for administrators, directors of nursing, and all key long-term care stakeholders.

Presenter

Estelle A. Lavoie has a diverse practice spanning health law, real estate transactions, and estates, trusts and probate. As a member of the firm's Health Law Practice Group, she has counseled nursing facilities on regulatory matters including, most notably, survey and certification, informal dispute resolution and complaints against the licenses of administrators. She has also dealt with various corporate, collections and creditors' rights issues for health care providers and presented claims against residents under conservatorship and against the estates of deceased residents. Estelle has worked on commercial transactions for nursing facilities and advised clients on related financing, land use and licensing issues. She has also handled matters of compliance with fraud and abuse laws and fines and sanctions imposed under Federal and State law. A native of Lewiston, Maine, she is a 1971 Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Bates College. She obtained her law degree in 1982 from the Washington College of Law at American University in Washington, DC. and joined Preti Flaherty in 1984.
